

Calling All Fiber Arts Instructors

The Yarny Way is looking for passionate fiber artists to teach small-group classes at our local yarn shop in Lubbock, TX!

Are you a passionate crafter looking to share your skills? We know there are talented knitters, crocheters, and fiber artists out there who love teaching—and we'd love to work with you!

The Yarny Way is a brand-new local yarn shop and creative space opening in the Kingsgate Center South (space next to Talbots) early June 2025, and we're looking for motivated instructors to lead small-group classes in:

 KNITTING  CROCHET  WEAVING
& OTHER FIBER ARTS & CRAFTS

Why Teach with Us?

- Compensation: $50/hr + $10 per student (Max. 8 students/class)
- 10% Instructor Discount on merchandise during class time
- Social Media Encouraged – Grow your own following while teaching
- Creative & Supportive Environment – Small class sizes, engaged students, and a welcoming space!

Email marni@theyarnyway.com with a brief introduction, your experience, and what you'd love to teach!
